

GOOD HOPE PRIMARY NURSERY SCHOOL

July 2012: Mathematics Workshops for teachers and P.E. coaching for children, provided by Hope One World

School Director, Mr. David Rwamwaro, welcomed four visitors from the United Kingdom representing the international educational charity Hope One World.

Mr. Barry Grantham and Miss Olwen Collingwood conducted ten days of workshops in Primary Mathematics for the teachers of Good Hope Primary & Nursery School, Namungoona, Kampala, whilst Miss Amy Meadows and Miss Alanya Machen coached the children in P.E. and Sports activities.

Barry Grantham said, "This is a wonderful opportunity to share and explore teaching methods and styles to make learning more meaningful and effective for the children. We can all learn from each other."

David Rwamwaro said, "We greatly appreciate these workshops by Hope One World which follow the Science workshops held in 2010. We hope the programme can be sustained and expanded in the future, with collaboration and support from other schools and organisations in Uganda and worldwide."

Amy Meadows and Alanya Machen said, "We have really enjoyed working with the children at Good Hope Primary School. They were so keen to learn new games and activities, and to practise with the equipment we brought for them." Olwen Collingwood said,

"All the teachers were enthusiastic, active participants in the Mathematics workshops and it was a joy to support them as they shared new interactive teaching styles and activities with the children."

Hope One World provides educational workshops, training and support for communities around the world. It is innovative in the way it uses human resources from higher education and schools in the UK to aid the development of partners overseas. Hope One World operates as an independent charity from its base near Liverpool UK and is sustained through its own fundraising activities and donations.
